ORDER OF DETENTION PENDING TRIAL

In accordance with the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), a detention hearing has been held. I conclude that the following facts are established by a preponderance of the evidence or clear and convincing evidence and require the detention of the above-named defendant pending trial in this case.

☐ (3) A period of not more than five years has elapsed since the (date of conviction) (release of the defendant from imprisonment) for the offense described in finding 1.

☐ (4) Findings Nos. 1, 2, and 3 establish a rebuttable presumption that no condition or

Written Statement of Reasons for Detention

I find that the accusations in the indictment and the information submitted in the Pretrial Services Agency report and at the hearing establish by a preponderance of the evidence that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required and by clear and convincing evidence that no conditions will assure the safety of the community.

I conclude that the following factors specified in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(g) are present and are to be taken into account:

1. Defendant Joshua David Scott is a 27 year old United States citizen. At the time of arrest he was living in Mazatlan, Sinaloa, United Mexican States. Scott's common law wife, a Mexican citizen, lives in Mexico and is currently pregnant with his child.
2. Scott is charged with drug trafficking offenses, including intent to distribute 50 grams or more of methamphetamine.
3. Scott is charged with a drug-trafficking offense having a penalty range of 10 years to life confinement.
4. An agent involved in the investigation testified that during a search warrant executed in 2003, weapons, drug paraphernalia, and drug ledgers were found at Scott's residence. Scott consented to the search of a storage facility where agents found an assault rifle. Scott initially cooperated with law enforcement and was debriefed regarding his sources and his drug activity. Scott told agents he had been involved in drug activity for seven years, starting with MDMA and progressing to methamphetamine. After his initial cooperation, Scott fled to Mexico where he lived using a fake name. He is believed to have continued to associate with drug traffickers in Mexico. He was arrested after Mexican authorities expelled him when his papers allowing him to be in Mexico expired.
5. Scott has prior charges for possession of marijuana and currently has an active bench warrant from New Orleans, Louisiana for failure to appear in court. He also has a conviction for deadly conduct.
6. Scott has not rebutted the statutory presumption that he is a flight risk and a danger to the community.

7. There is no condition or combination of conditions of release which would assure the appearance of the defendant in court or the safety of the community. Detention is ordered.

Directions Regarding Detention

It is therefore ORDERED that the defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with all court proceedings.
